The net proceeds of the Old Folks' concert, which amounted to a little over $100, will go for the benefit of the Village Improvement society to carry on the work of the society. Prof. W. O. Turner, whose energy and hard work produced one of the best musical evenings enjoyed here in many years is 77 years old and has spent 54 years in teaching. The work of the soloists was especially good. Miss Bradley's Ruth, and Simon, taken by Mr. Cushman, was finely rendered. The following names of those who took part were omitted in Saturday's Bulletin: Misses Barbara Mullen, Grace Mullen, Leal Connell, Helen Koelb, Geraldine Joseph, Mary Babcock, Mary Shalling, Mary Ingraham, Lulu Brayton, Jennie Spears, and M. The exterior of the new railway station is nearing completion, and work is progressing rapidly on the interior, with prospects of utilization within six weeks. There is to be a large vieck in the front of the building and workmen were engaged Monday in placing the ornamental stone work that is to surround the clock. Below raised letters read N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R., 1912. The tile roof is completed and work on the station approach, sidewalks and platforms, is progressing. The new freight depot is also well advanced and it is believed that the entire work of improvement, the most extensive undertaken in over a year between New York and Boston, will be completed by the opening of the summer season.

Samuel Royster, who stabbed William Collins, the wrestler, was taken to Kingston jall Monday morning by Chief of Police Thomas E. Brown, to remain until next Friday, when there will be a hearing in the Third district court. Although Royster persists that he had no knife and did not commathe murderous assault, there is proof of the most convincing nature of his guilt. There are witnesses who saw Boyster, knife in hand, stab Collins, and others saw him so through the and others saw him go through the motion of stabbing but were not near shough to see the knife. The blood-stained knife found Sunday has been identified positively as one purchased by Royster last Friday. Chief Brown

As the incoming general assembly will select at least two, and possibly three members of the Rhode Island bar for elevation to the Rhode Island bench, it is possible that Judge John W. Sweeney of Westerly may be one of the favored. Though Judge Vincent is a native of Westerly, it is beyond the memory of the oldest inhabitant when a resident of Westerly was a judge of the superior or supreme courts, and it is claimed the town should be given consideration. Judge Sweeney is one of the best known lawyers in the state and is personally known to the governor and nearly every member of the general assembly.

There is a vacancy in the superior court caused by the death of Judge Christopher M. Lee, Chief Justice Dubois is expected to retire, and owing to the increase in court business an additional judge may be appointed. OVENS DAILY

Athenoum.

Residents of Stonington are particularly interested in the narrative of Captain Nathaniel Fanning, which possesses great historical interest, as being one of the only three such from participants in the action between the Bon Homme Richard and the Scramis.

Narrative of the Adventures of an American Navy Officer Who served during part of the American Revolution under the command of

Com. John Paul Jones, Esq. That of the 1808 edition reads: Memoirs of the Life

Captain Nathaniel Fanning, Etc, etc.

So rare is either edition that only two copies are recorded, one each owned by Harvard and the Boston Athene-

The account comprises nearly pages, by far the fullest story of the historic fight in existence. Fanning has much to say about John Paul Jones, and his story of his experiences aboard the other vessels—Oriel, Alliance and Felipse—Is very interesting, William Abbatt of West Chester, N. Y., is to reproduce a small edition of this valuable relic of our revolution.
